Rar.idm 6.21 build 16.Zip.. Zip.The latest data available from the Lake Forest Police Department shows 17 homicides and 8 attempted homicides so far this year. The days are getting shorter as spring approaches, so it’s time to turn up the heat. “The approach that we have to take is a little bit of restraint and effort to preserve as much as we can, but let’s start to get the message out there,” says Lt. Mark Ferentz. “We are a violent society.” In Lake Forest, 30 miles east of downtown Chicago, the violence is mostly concentrated in a few neighborhoods, with shootings taking place almost daily. Recently, a boy was shot and killed and another was injured on the same block on North Lake Shore Drive. In March, a 24-year-old man was shot in the head and seriously injured on a bridge. “There is a lot of single family homes in the area, so we’ve been doing a great deal of neighborhood patrol, trying to make the streets safe,” says Ferentz. It’s time to start putting an end to this violence. Ferentz says there are already 1,000 names on an active warrant list. “I’m asking for the community’s help to get the bad guys off the streets,” he says. “We’re just asking the community’s help in providing us with tips on people’s whereabouts and
